

This background check could easily be done through the Student Pilot Certificate. There is not the need for TSA to get involved with liscencing and training. Let the FAA notify TSA of foreign nationals, and allow TSA to make a determination.

More regulation is not, and has not worked. Let the regulations stand as they were, but the agencies need to do their job better.